Comments:	There is a white dog on a chain on the property. Please check on Monday if the dog is still there and still chained. If so, the owner must either surrender the dog to the SPCA or, if he is going to keep the dog, then it must be placed on a runner. If the dog is going to his friend or is already by his friend then try to find out the address so that we can ensure that the dog's welfare will not be compromised at the new property.
