Please describe the concern you have

There are two dogs being kept in small cages on the empty plot next to the KPMG building (Opposite Homii) in Christiaan Barnard St, The one dog in particular, a German Shephard is constantly yelping, crying and barking and jumping up against the sides of the cage. This is very disturbing and cruel to these dogs. I have lodged numerous complaints with the security company, Helios, but it continues. Please do something about this - these dogs cannot live trapped in these small cages without room to exercise.
