Dear Lisa

We trust that this email finds you well.

We have picked up on the above case that was called through by Aimee of the NSPCA. The matter has been investigated and the animals were seized, however, no feedback was given. Please can we ask that when complaints are lodged telephonically that we are please sent an email as our staff are not permitted to communicate with NSPCA directly, and this has resulted in this case not being provided with feedback as they were under the impression that I would give feedback as NSPCA normally emails, and I was not aware.

Attached is the report. The matter is now finalized on our side.

Kind regards

Jaco Pieterse
Chief Inspector
