CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: Upon arrival, myself and Law enforcement officer Abrahams did not observe a dog show at the location, nor any animals on display. We spoke to the security present, who confirmed that there was indeed dogs at the location yesterday, however they might not be here today due to the rainy weather. He said the dogs are being displayed for adoption, and that they might be back on a more sunny day. We observed the area where the show is usually held, where there is a container which the show is run from and all the equipment is stored inside. However, no animals were present during our inspection.

Note: due to the weather, the show was not on today however the area inspector can follow up maybe Monday or Tuesday if the weather is better.
