Comments:	I called TEARS on 021 785 4482 and spoke to Melanie. Melanie checked the system and confirmed that Mr Molato Marendi (Briadene Fredericks' husband) had the following dogs at TEARS: • 1 brown and white male Pitbull dog "Smitty" for wound treatment and stitching on 23 December 2024. • 1 brown and white female Pitbull dog "Pick" for wound treatment and limping on 27 December 2024. • 4 black and white Pitbull puppies ("Bruno", "Max", "Star", and "Luna") for sterilisation and stitching form fighting on 15 November 2024. None of the puppies were ever bought back after that for any wound treatment. Briadene had informed Melanie that the puppies were going to new homes and that fighting would not take place again. The phone call to TEARS proves that the final warning was not complied with as 2 of the puppies which had been attacked and wounded by Smitty were not take to the vet. I was also repeatedly told that the dogs were going to their new homes and they were supposed to have gone to their new homes on Friday, 27 December 2024, but this is when Briadene denied Tariq and I access to do my follow up inspection. I still believe that a warrant must be obtained so that when I go do my follow up, she can not only not deny me access, but if those dogs are still there, I can remove them out of an environment where they are constantly attacked by other dogs. Warrant to be obtained.
