Good evening.I've been sending the SPCA messages concerning a puppy at 16 Falcon Street Seawinds.This puppy has been in distress for 3 weeks alredy. The SPCA were there because the puppys living condition was disgusting and he was tied up. There has been complaints about this puppy wailing the whole time. When the SPCA came the check up and left again they tied the puppy up again.Please please please can you do so.ething please?attached are 2 pics. The zinc against the wall is his shelter(kennel)
