Comments:	I called the respondant to make sure she would be home for me to come do an inspection and she said that she was on her way to the vet with a goat that had broken its leg during the night. She also said that all the relevant documents were sent so she doesnt understand the reason for a follow up, i explained this is out process in order to close the case. I said that i will call tomorrow morning to confirm a time to meet and she agreed. I will chat to Ayanda regarding this case.
