Comments:	Good day Nashitah, I hope you're doing well. Following the inspector's visit to the property on Friday afternoon , he reported that he knocked and called out several times but received no response. He then approached the neighbours and looked over the fence. From his observations, the living environment appeared reasonably clean, and the dogs had access to sufficient water and space to move around freely . A follow-up inspection is scheduled for the 12th. Thank you for your continued care and concern. Kind regards,
