

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                   |
|--------------|-------------------|
| Building:    |                   |
| Street:      | 102 UNITED STREET |
| Suburb:      | MACASSAR          |
| Postal Code: | 7130              |
| Date:        | 2025-11-05        |
| Time:        | 09:56             |
| Inspector:   | NAZLY ADAMS       |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | CASE DISCUSSION NOTE                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Follow-Up Date: | 2025-11-05                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Comments:       | ELMARIE BRIKKELS (0823626378) CALLED SAYING THAT SHE IS JUST INFORMING US THAT SHE IS WAITING ON A SHELTER (KENNEL) FOR THE DOG.THE DOG WAS STERILIZED, AND EVERYTHING ELSE HAS BEEN DONE AS REQUESTED. |
| Captured By:    | NAZLY ADAMS 2025-11-05 09:56                                                                                                                                                                                |