Good Evening

With regards to my request about the very old dog that is walked far and without a lead, I have just seen on our community whatsapp group that the dog was picked up by a pizza delivery driver as they thought the dog was lost as it was walking alone in the road. Once again this is due to the dog being walked by the domestic and because the dog is old and looks as if it is struggling with a hip issue, it walks very slow. The domestic walks home and leaves the dog to come home on it's own. I am not blaming the domestic as I think she is under orders from the dogs owners.

Besides the dog being walked too far in it's condition, the dog is also left alone walking in the road and could get knocked over. The domestic is also caring for the owners toddler so her attention is not on the dog.

My heart breaks when I see the dog at the park struggling to walk and I know in order for the dog to get home it has to walk up a hill. Please let me know what the outcome of the insurrection is.

Kind regards

Alyson Damon
