Subject: Dog in hot car

Hi, I found a dog locked in a car at Steenberg Village car park.

The dog was panting and there was insufficient ventilation.

I found the owner to ask if it was his car and he aggressively verbally abused me. I wont go into detail, needless to say that he got very personal.

He has since left the area but I feel strongly that he needs to be reminded that cars get very hot, even in 10-20 mins.

I'd prepapre yourself for verbal abuse.

Regards
