Subject: Dog at Bothas Camp, Kleinplaas dam road, redhill

Hi

Please could you send someone to Bothas camp, in Redhill. There is a bull mastiff or boerboel type of dog on a chain in the blazing sun with no water. I couldn't take photos as the owner was around. I will keep trying to go and get photos when there is no one around.

Bothas camp consists of two groups of buildings with an empty space in between. The dog is in the middle of the empty space.

Bothas camp is the first dirt road to your left as you turn onto Kleinplaas dam off Redhill road .

The owner is either Mark or Colin Botha, they both live on the properties.

I have been called there before when the dog was injured (bad facial injuries) but they wouldn't let me take it to Tears as they didn't want it sterilised, they plan to use it for breeding.

Thanks,
Alexandra
