Comments:	I called the owner on this number 0727508685, I explained to him that we received a concern about his cat and he asked me from who did we receive the concern, I explained to him that we are not allowed to give the details and he said he won't give me his details either. I then said he can surrender the cat and then we can come and collect tomorrow or he must take the cat to the vet. He said he will see as he is working tomorro until Saturday, only off on Sunday and he must collect the money first. I then told him that we will come tomorrow to issue him with a warning, he said whatever. Can we please send an authorised inspector to issue a final warning and if he is not complying, then we apply for a warrawarrant to remove the cat. The lady that I was told she owns the cat, that I issued a contact notice for, Vanessa does not own the cat.
