

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                    |
|--------------|--------------------|
| Building:    |                    |
| Street:      | 141 8TH AVENUE     |
| Suburb:      | GRASSY PARK        |
| Postal Code: | 7888               |
| Date:        | 2025-11-18         |
| Time:        | 15:00              |
| Inspector:   | MAGDALENE MARSHALL |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | CASE DISCUSSION NOTE                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Follow-Up Date: | 2025-11-21                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Comments:       | Mr Virgil Hendricks came in to enquire about his dog. He said he was just released from Pollsmoor today when they served him our documents. I requested that he go home and get his ID and do the affidavit, as well and come back before 5 pm. |
| Captured By:    | MAGDALENE MARSHALL 2025-11-18 15:00                                                                                                                                                                                                             |