Comments:	Amanda and Katie Galant was here this morning to lay claim to their animals. Amanda signed the claimant form but when she heard that her dog needed to be neutered as part of the agreement, she was not happy. She then opted to surrender her dog - A 89171. Katie Galant (7209051001089) owner of the female Jack Russel, still wants her dog back and completed the necessary paperwork. She explained that there is no space at her court and that is why she kept the dog at Amanda's place. I explained to her that she is still responsible to make sure her dog is sorted. She understood and I explained the costs involved to her as well. I explained that she has 7 days to make payment before she can get her dog back and she said she will see what she can do. If she does not come within the 7 days then the dog becomes the property of the SPCA.
