Good morning.

I trust that you are well.

I know you guys are busy, but I was at Pet World on Sunday morning, and was rather concerned about the amount of Eabbits that they have in an enclosure as well as the amount of Busgies in the one cage. They clearly stocked up for December unfortunately. They have lots of animals "in stock" - not nice at all, but the rabbits and buddies were seriously overcrowded.

Everything was clean and they had food and water but overcrowding isn't acceptable!

Thank you for everything you guys do, and good luck with this "season".

May you all be safe.

Regards

Vicky
