Comments:	At approximately 14h13, I have contacted the (complainant) Junaid 2 times, he cellphone rings with answers. After not getting hold of him, I then sent him a WhatsApp message as follows. Hi Junaid, I hope you are doing fine. I would like you to refresh your mind, in connection with the cat of a cat tjat you reported to SPCA from below address. No 7 Susan Street Tafelsig, Mitchell's Plain. The nature of complaint follows " There is a cat that appeared to have a nose and the face that is open. And is not able to chew or to drink, the owner of the cat has been arrested, the people at the property are not seeking vetenary treatment " The matter is now at the court, and the court would like you to provide us with the statement, based on the following questions. 1. " how long the complainant was aware of the cat" 2. " how long (from which date) the complainant can remember the accused to be possession of the cat" Follow up to be conducted tomorrow
