Comments:	The owner, Jamie-Leigh Brandreth (9602120148089), 081 734 7126 or Damon Kulp (071 166 6562) came to the SPCA this morning to lay claim to her dog. She brought along proof that the dog belongs to her in the form of images with her son and an affidavit that her mom provided . The owner claimed she did not receive any correspondence or warnings that the inspector issued and she had a bad experience with the SPCA when she was here in last year - the owner said this is why she did not provide the dog with the necessary treatment that we required. The owner also said that the image in the warrant application shows that the inspector was not in the yard and her mother also said yes. I explained to her that I will have to check with the inspector what his findings were and get the input of the Chief inspector.
