Comments:	I returned the call of the owner as requested and explained to him that the case was discussed with the Chief and it was said that they need to get the owner to come and claim the dogs or they, as the caretakers, will have to provide an affidavit and proof that the actual owner gave them permission to keep the dogs and care for the dogs. The owner was not very happy to hear this because I informed him that even with this information it does not guarantee that he will be getting the dogs back. He said he will try to do so by today or tomorrow.
