Comments:	Upon arrival, I met with Neil Junior Manasse, son of the owner of the dogs. He informed me that he's father does not live there but he comes to check up on the dogs every few days, however Neil Junior takes care of the dogs. I observed one of the dogs, a female adult boerboel dog free roaming in the front yard of the property. I asked Neil Junior if he can show me the other dogs, whereby he said they can be aggressive and he cannot fully control them. He told me his father went to go enquire about the compliance notice issued previously at the Law Enforcement office but he did not hear further than that. He said he's father is hesitant to sterilize them as he bought them from a breeder and he registered them as show dogs and he might want to have one litter for the bloodline. I informed him that if they are registered by KUSA and they are always checked by a vet then they can apply for the breeders permit should they meet the criteria. I gave him the application form and advised that they should send the application as soon as possible otherwise if I come do the follow up and they haven't submitted it, I will be issuing a fine.
