Comments: Dear Angelica,

We want to thank you for your below email and for the information provided .
The SPCA has a legal obligation to follow through with all complaints received , this includes following up on animals that is due follow up medical attention.

By wilfully withholding information of the whereabouts of Hickey the cat, you were hindering us from carrying out our duties. This has now been remedied as you have provided us the information of the new owners.

Due to us now having the details of Hickey's new owners , we will follow up with them directly.

Should there be any additional queries, we will be sure to communicate them via email.

Yours sincerely,

Inspector J Page
