Comments:	The owner came in this morning to lay claim to his animal. He advised that he was not home when the inspection were carried out. I asked him why he didn't reply to our warnings/ notices and he could not answer. He advised that he took the dog to the vet last week and provided proof thereof. The dog is still under treatment and must receive his last medication today. The medication was left here by the owner and I took it to Dr. Anja who is responsible for the animals in outside general ward.
