Comments:	I received a call from the owner of the dog. He advised that he is back from Eastern Cape and want to come fetch his dog. I advised that he would need to pay the pound fees of R500 and that there is an additional fee of R2 500 for the biopsy and removal of the growth. I told him he is welcome to take the dog to a private animal hospital for the growth removal and biopsy, he said he will come discuss it with us during the week.
