Hi Jaco

After several attempts to contact this caretaker, I have not been successful. The caretaker came to the office of the 20th of Feb and told me that he would bring proof that the owner of the animals, that is in America, left him in charge of looking of the two dogs and the upkeep of their welfare. To date, he has not yet been back to the office and not answering my calls.

I believe the dogs are still in our care. Do you suggest we send him one final correspondence in the form of an SMS, or should I send the area inspector to the property in hopes of getting a response? Please let me know how to proceed so that we can decide on these dogs.
