Comments:	Upon my arrival, I noticed that the gate, as usual, is locked with a chain and padlock. I called Cornelia already expecting to hear excuses from her, and as I expected, she said her and her husband are on their way to Tulbach because her mother in law died and they have to deal with the matter . I asked her if one of the workers could let me in so that I could just take a photo of the water sources provided to monkeys so that I could close the case from my side. She as usual said no and that she wants to be around. I then asked of the monkeys now have permanent access to water and she again made the same excuses. She did mention that all the monkeys from outside had been sold and that the monkeys still inside get water every hour. I reiterated that regardless, they must have water at all times as per legislation. Please can the telviva call be downloaded and uploaded to the case. She said she is available tomorrow but this again means that she will be expecting us. I additionally have a lot of cases scheduled for tomorrow.
