

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                   |
|--------------|-------------------|
| Building:    |                   |
| Street:      | 32D JOHNDOWN WALK |
| Suburb:      | HANOVER PARK      |
| Postal Code: | 7780              |
| Date:        | 2025-04-16        |
| Time:        | 21:05             |
| Inspector:   | JEFFREY MFINI     |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | CASE DISCUSSION NOTE                                                                                                                                                 |
| Follow-Up Date: | 2025-04-17                                                                                                                                                           |
| Comments:       | I Requested Simon to bath the dog as he still appeared ta have dandruff, he agreed that, he bath the dog tomorrow morning, then I will take the dog home after that. |
| Captured By:    | JEFFREY MFINI 2025-04-16 21:05                                                                                                                                       |