Good evening

I trust you are well. I am once again following up on my complaint please? I will not let this carry on.. I meant what I said about using social media to finally get the attention that is necessary in this case. Again.. the owners are LYING AND HIDING THE MOM specifically because they are breeding her to death. It's REVOLTING AND NO ANIMAL DESERVES THIS
Hi Megan

Thank you for your email.

As stated before, we are doing a follow-up at the property tomorrow and then we should have updated feedback for you.

@Inspectorate – Cape of Good Hope SPCA please can you forward the full email thread to the relevant Supervisor so that they are aware of the case.
