I've considered fostering a dog and so came across Loving Paws rescue. I have not been there but there are a few red flags worrying me. This is after your posts of animals in terrible circumstances at Apparat one man show rescues. I have noticed that the owner is desperate for donation for food and outstanding vet bills. Yet she keeps on taking animals in, including very young puppies. These puppies need special care. I'm a community member in Bellville feeding a feral colony with 3 other community members. We have had to rescue tiny kittens and I know how expensive their treatment and nourishment needs are. Just did peace of mind, I did get Cape Town feral project to trap and steri all the cats. Two were missed, hence the babies. I've been added to her WA group and it seems they moving some of the animals to a plot/farm area. Address: 52 Affodil street Ruwari Brackenfell 7560 Loving Paws is the organization. Owner:Nadia +27795963336 I'm hoping it will be a positive outcome but do feel a site visit is needed.
