Comments:	kelly - 0832984731 called to advise that she brought her mothers chow into our hospital yesterday , to be PTS'd. Called SPCA hospital who confirmed that Yoshi has been PTS'd yesterday. She mentioned that there is no other animals on the property , however the case suggests otherwise. Please call kelly if we need to go back to the property as her mother stays alone and probably wont even hear if anyone is at the property due to her being in remission from cancer so we would need to arrange to meet up with kelly.
