The old man living in the property does not want them and has threatened to kill them. They have now been locked in a room in the house by his carer, for their safety. Please can you send an inspector to remove them from the premises. They also have a dog and have just acquired two additional pitbull puppies which is highly irresponsible. Please note that the old man is mentally ill and very capable of killing those little kittens, due to the history of his aggressive behaviour and violent outbursts. Thank you.
