General Report Comments: On my arrival, I met with Bielqees, who allowed me onto the property, where I have observed two dogs, both dogs were roaming freely at the back of the house, the dog in question appeared to have again prolapse that was hanging from the private part. I told the wife that, the dog needs to be taken back to the vet for adequate treatment

The male dog appeared to be in a fair condition, both dogs were roaming freely at the back of the house.

I also noticed that, there was no shelter provided to the dogs and there was water provided to the dogs.

The warning issued as follows.

1. To take the dog Mel to the vet within 72 hours.
2. To provide the dogs with adequate shelter within 72 days.
3. To clean the living environment within 72 hours
