General Report Comments: Upon arrival, the owner allowed me access to the property and showed me where the dogs are kept. There are two German Shepherd dogs kept inside the property. The first one is kept in an enclosure of 4 meters by 4 meters and the second one is kept in an enclosure of approximately 1.5 meters by 5 meters. In my opinion there is adequate space for the dogs and the owner claimed that they get walked regularly.

Both dogs appear to be in good condition, I did not observe any veterinary concerns, the living environment was clean, and there was access to adequate shelter in the form of a large kennel and the other GSD sleeps inside a room in the house.

The owner is a registered breeder with the GSD Federation of South Africa and both dogs have vaccination records as well. He is not currently breeding as the one GSD is under a year and he will wait till it is 2.5 years of age.

I did not find any welfare concerns. The respondent is of the opinion that this is a civil issue as there was an incident between the respondents mother and a neighbour. I informed him that I am only there to check on the welfare of the dogs and the living environment conditions of which they are so kept.

This matter may be close as there are no contraventions of the Animals Protection Act, 71 of 1962.
