General Report Comments: Upon follow-up I met with owner and she claimed that she called Geraldine for assistance and geraldime informed her that the dog can't be treated as it gave birth, I informed her that unfortunately she needs to seek veterinary attention at a hospital and speak to a veterinarian for advice on way forward as the dog is scratching herself like crazy and has fleas as well. The pitbull dog was free roaming on the property and all had access to shelter with drinkable water. The puppies appeared in fair condition, I left a warning stating that the owner should within 48hours seek veterinary treatment for the dog without any delays and if she is unable to comply with requested she has the option to surrender the dog to prevent any unnecessary suffering
