Comments:	I called the dog's owner and she confirmed that a case wasn't opened by the SAPS. She said they are also scared to open a case as the perpetrator is a gangster and they worry about their son's safety as he goes to school with the perpetrator. I asked if she was willing to do affidavits so the SPCA can then open a case and she confirmed they are willing. She gave me her new number and agreed to let me know once their affidavits are ready. I then followed the call with a WhatsApp. I then called TEARS and I was advised to liaise with Mandy. I sent Mandy an email requesting a vet report. I will follow up with a message and email whilst attending Qurbani.
