 Comments Following the warning issued the day before, we did a follow up to ensure they are compliant in terms of the warning issued.

All the cattle was still on the property and has not been moved or slaughtered. The plans for these cattle is to take them to the site known as Al Musaaid. No arrangements had been made yet to move them. They are trying to secure a trailer, failing which, the cattle will be herded to the other property as it is approximately 100m away.

To follow up again tomorrow.

Signed
