Comments, if any At approximately 14h30, I went back to the Farm, I decided to do the inspection on the sheep that were kept in a big Kraal, while I wa there Umar came to me, he was had that attitude towards me. He told me that, he doesn't like when the people come on someone's property and use their powers or their authorities to order people around, I was interested on what he was telling me, and I wanted to know who were those authorities he was referring to, he replied by saying all the SPCA officials, I responded by saying, I don't recall myself ordering him around. He further told me , there was an SPCA officer, who just walked into the property and started with his inspection, without his permission, he also added by saying, even me, in the morning, I just walked in without his permission. I responded by saying, on my arrival in the morning, I met with the security who was standing next to the gate, who allowed me onto the property, I further told him that, even after the security let me into into farm, I didn't go to the Kraal, I told him that, I requested from the handler where he was, up until he showed up I further told that, him and his father on previous Qurban inspection, they told ne to feel at home, I am not sure what gas changed now and I was not told about the change. I explained to Umar that, it doesn't help this thing of being defensive as it always looked like, he is concealing something from us, and by doing, he is shouting for more attention. Then Umar apologize.
