Comments:	I drove up and down Karbonkel Road but could not find a Little Feet Educare, as the property is supposedly next door to that. I did see a Little Angels Educare and stopped there, but I didn't see a property which could be the property in question, according to the previous reports. I asked some of the people in the road if they know where it is but no one could provide any information. A crowd was starting to form around my vehicle, so I rather left the area. I would suggest the area inspector get the exact location of the property from Trevor or the respondent .
