Type:	CASE DISCUSSION NOTE
Follow-Up Date:
Comments:	Upon arrival, we met with Ms. Althea Reynecke, the owner of the dogs. Ms. Reynecke was informed of the relevant City of Cape Town Animal Keeping By-laws pertaining to the keeping of animals on Council property. She confirmed that both dogs are still unsterilized and that no application for exemption or supporting documentation had been submitted to date. Ms. Reynecke was informed of the possible legal procedures and consequences that may follow should compliance not be achieved within the prescribed timeframe. She was further educated on the provisions of the Bylaw relating to the compulsory sterilization of animals over the age of six months. A Section 56 Notice was issued for the keeping of unsterilized animals in contravention of the Bylaw. Can be NFA
