Comments:	Upon arrival, we shouted and hooted but received no response. We then contacted Mr. R. Veldman, who advised that the matter relates to an ongoing neighbourly dispute. Mr. Veldman subsequently contacted his nephew, Cashwin, who granted us access to the property. An inspection was conducted, and no evidence of unhygienic living conditions for the animals was found. Both dogs had access to clean water, adequate shelter, and food. They appeared in good condition, with a healthy body score. Mr. Veldman stated that, due to the nature of this ongoing neighbourly issue, he will not permit future access to the property should similar complaints arise again. Case NFA
