Comments:	As i have been making most contact via the phone I called Mr Ahokona again and he did not answer . I then called his mother as that number was on the case from control. She explained the dog had been to the vet and they just had tp return for the stiches. I explained that her son needs to call me back to set up an appointment so i can do my inspection and that he could email the vet report so long. I await thier feedback
