Comments, if any:

Upon arrival for the follow Inspector David's and I observed that there was no overcrowding as there was only 2 chickens in the top of the cage, there was water available and the living environment appeared to be reasonably clean.

There was also a cover of the top of the cage to protect the birds from the weather conditions. Both the chickens did not appear to be sick or injured and.
The hawker has complied with the warning which was issued and the matter can be finalized.
