Comments, if any:

Upon arrival, We informed the hawker that we have returned to conduct the follow-up inspection which she had granted us permission to do so.

We conducted the inspection and observed that the chickens were adequately spaced out, there was adequate flooring for the chickens and the cages appeared to be adequately clean as well. There was clean water available to all of the chickens in containers that were secured so that they would not tip over.

We did not observe any welfare contraventions and the hawker had complied with the warning that was issued. This matter may be finalized.
