

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                  |
|--------------|------------------|
| Building:    | UNIT 3           |
| Street:      | 8 LADAN ROAD     |
| Suburb:      | KALK BAY         |
| Postal Code: | 7990             |
| Date:        | 2025-08-03       |
| Time:        | 16:23            |
| Inspector:   | YAASEEN ABRAHAMS |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                                        |
|-----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | COLLECTION - ANIMAL COLLECTED                                                                                                                          |
| Follow-Up Date: |                                                                                                                                                        |
| Comments:       | 1x Cape White Eyed Bird collected, concern was it looked sick. Bird was active again after collection.Bird was released close by and flew off. NFA |
| Captured By:    | YAASEEN ABRAHAMS 2025-08-03 16:23                                                                                                                      |