Were any animals seen on the property? No

FINDINGS

The owner has provided proof as per the warning that had been issued. The dog named Spotty was examined at the Animal Welfare Society of Stellenbosch by one of their veterinarians with no follow-up visit requested. A follow-up inspection will be conducted on the 19/08/25 at the property to see if the dog has gained weight since it was taken to the veterinary clinic and based off that inspection a decision will be made as to whether or not the dog requires further consultation.
