Upon arrival for the follow-up inspection, Ursula Lewis's daughter Jocelyn Lewis was at the property with two other unknown females. Jocelyn Lewis claimed to be the owner of the dogs and was immediately verbally confrontation with us.

Jocelyn claimed that the growth was a result of a dog bite. We told her that we are concerned about the growth and do not suspect it is from a dog bite wound. She became more agitated and was failing to provide her details at the instructing from one of the females on the property. Inspector David's informed the female that she is now being obstructive and cautioned her that any person who obstructs, hinders or resists and officer authorized in terms of the Animals Protection Act 71 of 1962 shall be guilty of an offense in terms of section 8(4) of the abovementioned Act. After which Jocelyn complied with providing her full details.

The dog named Maya had also not been groomed nor had the shelter roof been repaired. There was water available and the living environment appeared to be clean.

Inspector David's issued a warning stating:

1. Your dog named Drake appears to have a growth, take the dog to a veterinary clinic and provide proof thereof within 48 hours.
2. Get adequate shelter/fix the shelter within 48 hours.
3. Groom the dog named Maya within 48 hours.

Jocelyn Lewis signed and accepted the warning.
