Please describe the concern you have

I have just walked past this dog black in colour with some white on his or her nose.
Tied to a chain that is very short and stuck in-between rubble in the back yard of a flat. Which is very small. Has a bungalow and rubble in the yard. The dog was some how on top of the rubble im not sure if he or she is tied to the rubble but it seems the space for him or her to move about is very limited and looks like a senior dog.

This is located in a block of flats with a colour of red at the bottom and a pale yellow or white on top. The flat is located in Sirius road but the name of the specific flat is Dianne court possibly number 2 I was struggling to identify the specific number. It is a flat at the bottom of course with a yard. The flats is located behind the ocean view police station. When you identify the name it is written big on a board on the outer side of the flats, from that board it is the second flat at the bottom you will immediately see the bungalow and the rubble.

That specific flats is the safest flats in ocean view however I would still be careful and keep your eyes open as people react in weird ways in this community. I have attached a image below not sure if it shows.
