Comments:	Apon arrival, we spoke with the sister of the owner, who informed us that her sister was not at home. When we asked about the dogs in question, she confirmed that there are dogs at the property but unfortunately she don't know where were they at the moment, we then requested a cellphone number of the owner which she gave it to us, we tried to call the number but the owner didn't pick up. She adviced us to call her after 3.
