Good day Roxanne

Please investigate as per the complaint received - The dog is constantly barking (sounds more like crying than barking), all day and all night. I've tried looking over the wall to see the dog but I can't but I can hear chains which makes me think it's chained up, hence all the barking. I have audio recordings of the "barking". These owners have been reported previously for mishandling of animals and keeping them chained up.
