Comments:	It is unfortunately that the owner decided to turn the SPCA down, she sends me a whatsapp stating that, she is no longer interested on opening the case against the accused. She claimed that, yesterday the accused have her hard time that led to a hot argument, where both families were called to discuss the matter, then the accused decided not to proceed by opening the case, I told her that, the accused will never stop abusing animals and next time he might stab a human beings, she told me that she doesn't want to put herself in danger especially after she buried her brother in December. the owner is not interested at all now. I will discuss the case with Justin on Monday. I even wentbto her house, i found no one at the property, i tried to call her, she didnt answer her cellphone. Then she responfed later to tell me that, lets drop the case.
