Comments:	yaana! SEP 30, 14:28 My kitten is still very young and recently gave birth to kittens. Unfortunately, I am unable to properly care for both the mother and her kittens, as I do not have the financial resources or experience needed. One of the kittens has already passed away, and another is currently suffering and needs proper care. The mother is also very young and does not seem able to properly care for the kittens. I am worried about their wellbeing and would like to surrender the mother and remaining kittens so they can receive the care and support they need.
